

12

The Last Start for this Season.

L I S T

Of the Horses for the Golden Bridles; Eight drawn back, and four to hold fast. Query, Is the four to be sold, or are they sold?

The Horses entered, Rider's and Rider's Livery, who is ready to start this day, Tuesday the 30th of September, 1777, For Golden Bridles of High Value. The winning Horses will be intitled to a name, which will make all the Gallopers stand in awe, and own his power.

Likewise the gaining Horses will be well fed at a full manger, for twelve months to come, unless they be unruly flinching flinging Brutes, in that case, they will be turned out a graffing

A Lea-footed Gelding, called Drink-fairly; Rider's name Twitch'im.
Livery Stout Brown.

A stout Stone Horse, called Snipe'im; Rider's name Look-before-you.
Livery Old Hock.

A nimble Stallion, called the Vicar of Brae; Rider's name Turn'im.
Livery Claret.

A young stiff tailed Galloway, called Flinch'im; Rider an Old Miser, called Mix'im. Livery True Yellow.

A high headed stout Stallion, new broke, called Look Sharp; Rider's name Pinch'im. Livery Thread-bare Yellow.

A squint nosed side tailed Stallion, called Tricky; Rider's name Jink'im. Livery Silver Colour.

A dapple grey sow-lugged brute, called Cunning; Rider's name Play-Fair. Livery Iron-ore.

A Squirrel eyed fat Horse, ring straike above the tail, called Flagg'im; Rider's name Souple Tam Slikie. Livery Snuffie Brown.

A switch tailed Hunter, called Jink About; Rider's name Croch'im.
Livery Viciate Blue.

A Fleet Pownie, flunks with his hinder hurdies, very ill to manage, called Deceit; Rider's name L—— Fox. Livery black alumed Skins.

A young short sighted Stallion, furred in the face, called Drug'im; Rider's name Brasil Nose. Livery Tartan.

A fidging fat snirly Horse, called Whip Up; Rider's name Trusty; Livery Duk Colour.

The Public cannot see this Race, as none will be allowed, but those concerned, and their Riders. And be it further commanded, and strictly complied with, under the severest penalties, that none, he she, him nor them, shall take it upon them to speak, think, wink, or wag their heads, nor make any other motions that may give offence, either in company, or out of company, here, or there, or no where, until this Golden prize be over. All may hear, but forbear.

The starting is at the usual hour, and the ropping as usual. The guards will not be allowed to bring any Lochaber guns, nor Andrew Ferraro's, nor speak Earse until the heats be over.

P. S. Some of the Horses will be drawn, which will be advertised in the third List.

(Price One-Penny.)